Chain Free £457,500

Cain & Fuller

A unique opportunity to acquire an interesting and attractive barn conversion located in a secluded setting at the end of an attractive lane giving direct access to open farmland yet also being with a mile of Cirencester Market Place and all of the amenities and facilities that the town has to offer. The Tallet forms part of Bowling Green Farm, a conversion of Cotswold stone period buildings around a secluded courtyard setting completed in the 1990's which over the years has matured into an attractive and sought after location. The barn benefits from stylish light living space with a selection of three reception rooms including a study/home office ideal for the home worker. The present vendors have fitted a comprehensive contemporary kitchen with good range of storage and high quality appliances and installed a contemporary family shower room finished to a good standard. Throughout the barn there is a selection of period character features including exposed ceiling timbers and exposed Cotswold stone walls. Of special mention is the master bedroom which displays a semi vaulted ceiling with an impressive selection of exposed main timbers. Externally, the property includes a front drive with secluded parking and a useful EV car charger. The enclosed rear garden offers a private and secure space for enjoying the summer months. We are able to bring the barn to the market in a chain free position and urge early viewing through Cain & Fuller in Cirencester.

Cirencester

Cirencester an historic Roman town which became an important centre for the wool trade in medieval times. Today it is a thriving market town. The property occupies a desirable situation. Shopping in Cirencester is highly regarded, off the main streets there are many interesting back lanes with specialist shops, particularly Black Jack Street. On the outskirts of the town are two supermarkets (Waitrose and Tesco) as well as a Hospital. A new Leisure Centre was opened in 2006 and one of the oldest open-air pools in the country is a short walk. A gate to the 2500 acre Cirencester Park, belonging to the Bathurst family and open during the day, is also a short walk off Cecily Hill. Many concerts are given in the Church and there are talented local choirs and amateur dramatic groups. Within about half an hour's drive are the towns of Cheltenham, Gloucester and Swindon. Bath, Oxford and Stratford are about an hour by car, with superb cultural and recreational facilities.

Private and State schools in the area are excellent, such as Beaudesert, Deer Park, Kingshill, Prior Park, Rendcomb and Hatherop Castle.

Kemble airfield has facilities for small aircraft and Aston Down is a gliding centre. Cirencester has had a golf course for over 100 years and others are at Minchinhampton, Burford and Naunton. Superb horse racing takes place at Cheltenham, as well as at meetings at Newbury and Bath. Sailing is available on the lakes between Cirencester and Swindon

Amenities

The Tallet is located in a much sought-after location due to its proximity to the town centre which is within walking distance. Cirencester is deservedly known as the "Capital of the Cotswolds" and is extremely accessible, being at the intersection of the Fosse Way and Ermin Way. The latter provides virtual dual carriage access to both the M4 at Swindon and the M5 at Gloucester/Cheltenham. There is a fast and regular Great Western Train service from Kemble (about 3.5 miles) to London Paddington which takes approximately 75 minutes with stops at Swindon, Didcot and Reading.'
