Cirencester

Cirencester is an historic Roman town which became an important centre for the wool trade in medieval times. Today it is a thriving market town. The property occupies a desirable situation. Shopping in Cirencester is highly regarded, off the main streets there are many interesting back lanes with specialist shops, particularly Black Jack Street. On the outskirts of the town are two supermarkets (Waitrose and Tesco) as well as a Hospital. A new Leisure Centre was opened in 2006 and one of the oldest open-air pools in the country is a short walk. A gate to the 2500 acre Cirencester Park, belonging to the Bathurst family and open during the day, is also a short walk off Cecily Hill. Many concerts are given in the Church and there are talented local choirs and amateur dramatic groups. Within about half an hour's drive are the towns of Cheltenham, Gloucester and Swindon. Bath, Oxford and Stratford are about an hour by car, with superb cultural and recreational facilities. Private and State schools in the area are excellent.

Amenities

Beeches is a much sought-after location due to its proximity to the town centre which is within walking distance. Cirencester is deservedly known as the "Capital of the Cotswolds" and is extremely accessible, being at the intersection of the Fosse Way and Ermin Way. The latter provides virtual dual carriage access to both the M4 at Swindon and the M5 at Gloucester/Cheltenham. There is a fast and regular Great Western Train service from Kemble (about 3.5 miles) to London Paddington which takes approximately 75 minutes with stops at Swindon, Didcot and Reading. The house is within easy walking distance of primary and secondary schools with excellent offsets reports and a selection of recreational amenities.

Description

The property has the great benefit of its main access of Queen Elizabeth Road to the rear, where there is off-road vehicle parking for two cars in front of the detached garage with door leading into the secluded south facing rear garden. Entrance door leads to a large hallway with stairs to first floor and doors leading to the living space. To the rear of the property there is a large well proportioned lounge with ample space for large soft furnishings, this room opens onto a good sized garden/family room which benefits from the sunny aspect and gives direct access onto the secluded rear garden. There is a dual aspect kitchen/diner fitted to an excellent standard with a selection of integral appliances, underfloor heating for those winter months and ample space for a large dining table in the dining area to the rear, with double doors giving access onto the sunny rear garden. The house has also been extended to the side elevation with a useful utility/family room a significant size this gives access to both front and rear of the property and also has the benefit of a downstairs cloakroom as well as a selection of further modern storage. To the first floor there are three double family bedrooms with a selection of built in storage space and a modern contemporary family bathroom room all presented in superb condition with storage and window to side. The property is warmed by a gas fired central heating system which is complemented by UPVC double glazed windows and doors, the house is presented in superb condition.

Outside

To the front of the property there is a low maintenance garden and driveway with off road parking, pathway to entrance door, additional entrance door to side. The rear garden is an outstanding feature of the house benefiting from a high degree of seclusion and not being overlooked with a sunny southerly facing orientation. There is a selection of paved outside seating/dining areas to the rear of the house to take full advantage of the sunny private aspect, these lead to a good sized shingled area ideal for small children creating a safe and secure environment for small animals or young children. Contained within the garden there is a deep storage cupboard and access to the detached single garage to the rear of the garden with driveway to front leading off Queen Elizabeth Road.

Garage

The property benefits from a sizeable detached garage with up and over door to front, power and light, personal door to the rear garden.
