Near by Cirencester

Cirencester is an historic Roman town which became an important centre for the wool trade in medieval times. Today it is a thriving market town. The property occupies a desirable situation. Shopping in Cirencester is highly regarded, off the main streets there are many interesting back lanes with specialist shops, particularly Black Jack Street. On the outskirts of the town are two supermarkets (Waitrose and Tesco) as well as a Hospital. A new Leisure Centre was opened in 2006 and one of the oldest open-air pools in the country is a short walk. A gate to the 2500 acre Cirencester Park, belonging to the Bathurst family and open during the day, is also a short walk off Cecily Hill. Many concerts are given in the Church and there are talented local choirs and amateur dramatic groups. Within about half an hour's drive are the towns of Cheltenham, Gloucester and Swindon. Bath, Oxford and Stratford are about an hour by car, with superb cultural and recreational facilities. Private and State schools in the area are excellent, such as Beaudesert, Deer Park, Kingshill, Prior Park, Rendcomb and Hatherop Castle.

Kemble airfield has facilities for small aircraft and Aston Down is a gliding centre. Cirencester has had a golf course for over 100 years and others are at Minchinhampton, Burford and Naunton. Superb horse racing takes place at Cheltenham, as well as at meetings at Newbury and Bath. Sailing is available on the lakes between Cirencester and Swindon.

Description

Entrance door leading to open plan reception hallway with access to downstairs cloakroom and useful study area ideal for those who may work from home. The house benefits from dual aspect main living space with a large main lounge with ample space for soft furnishings and benefiting from glazed double doors opening onto the secluded rear garden. To the other side of the house there is an extensive kitchen/dining/family room, a large and inviting living space benefiting from an extensively fitted kitchen area with selection of storage and built-in appliances with large picture window to the rear garden. To the front aspect of this space there is an open plan dining/family space with space for large dining room table and attributing furniture. To the rear corner a good sized utility room leads to the rear garden. The first floor benefits from three large well proportioned bedrooms with a selection of storage. Of special mention is the well proportioned master bedroom with access to en suite shower room, a large and impressive living space. An attractive and light open landing leads to an additional family bathroom. The house is presented in excellent condition throughout and benefits from a gas fired central heating system complemented by double glazed windows. Many people have extended their accommodation in this area we feel a loft conversion would give a further two bedrooms to the accommodation and maybe possible subject to the correct building regulation and planning permission from the local council planning office.
