Cirencester

Cirencester is an historic Roman town which became an important centre for the wool trade in medieval times. Today it is a thriving market town. The property occupies a desirable situation. Shopping in Cirencester is highly regarded, off the main streets there are many interesting back lanes with specialist shops, particularly Black Jack Street. On the outskirts of the town are two supermarkets (Waitrose and Tesco) as well as a Hospital. A new Leisure Centre was opened in 2006 and one of the oldest open-air pools in the country is a short walk. A gate to the 2500 acre Cirencester Park, belonging to the Bathurst family and open during the day, is also a short walk off Cecily Hill. Many concerts are given in the Church and there are talented local choirs and amateur dramatic groups. Within about half an hour's drive are the towns of Cheltenham, Gloucester and Swindon. Bath, Oxford and Stratford are about an hour by car, with superb cultural and recreational facilities. Private and State schools in the area are excellent, such as Beaudesert, Deer Park, Kingshill, Prior Park, Rendcomb and Hatherop Castle.

Kemble airfield has facilities for small aircraft and Aston Down is a gliding centre. Cirencester has had a golf course for over 100 years and others are at Minchinhampton, Burford and Naunton. Superb horse racing takes place at Cheltenham, as well as at meetings at Newbury and Bath. Sailing is available on the lakes between Cirencester and Swindon.

Amenities

The Avenue is in a much sought-after location due to its proximity to the town centre which is within walking distance. Cirencester is deservedly known as the "Capital of the Cotswolds" and is extremely accessible, being at the intersection of the Fosse Way and Ermin Way. The latter provides virtual dual carriage access to both the M4 at Swindon and the M5 at Gloucester/Cheltenham. There is a fast and regular Great Western Train service from Kemble (about 3.5 miles) to London Paddington which takes approximately 75 minutes with stops at Swindon, Didcot and Reading.

Description

The property has been improved and extended in the past to now present an appealing and light living space with a selection of character features. The ground floor benefits from well proportioned reception space with a large lounge to the front aspect focused around a period fireplace with two picture windows to the front aspect. To the rear of the house there is an open plan kitchen/diner with ample space for dining table and a modern fitted kitchen with excellent range of storage and door opening onto the secluded south facing garden. A large reception hallway to the front has stairs leading to the first floor accommodation. The three bedrooms to the first floor are proportionate and offer excellent family living space with a selection of built-in storage and a modern family bathroom with picture windows to rear aspect. The property is warmed throughout by a gas fired central heating system which is complemented by double glazed windows.

Outside

The rear garden is an outstanding feature of the house benefiting from a south facing aspect and a high degree of seclusion with side gated access and personal door leading to the double tandem garage.

Double tandem garage

The property benefits from a double tandem garage with power and light, up and over door to front, personal door to the garden. Access to the garage is via double gates from Chester street. Purchasers may want to investigate whether the garage could be converted into additional living space all subject to planning consent from the local council.
