Renovated to an exceptional standard by the current owners, the property provides a superb home with high-quality finishes and an abundance of natural light.

The property is approached via a landscaped driveway with ample parking for multiple vehicles, leading to a welcoming front door. Upon entering, you are greeted by a spacious open-plan living, kitchen, and dining area, which can be easily adapted to suit your needs. The living area offers a cosy retreat, while the kitchen features a central island, solid granite worktops, contrasting cream units, and integrated appliances, including a dishwasher and a Rangemaster cooker. The dining area has bifold doors that open onto a porcelain patio, seamlessly merging indoor and outdoor living and flooding the space with natural light. A skylight above the kitchen island adds to the bright and airy feel. A stable door also provides access to the garden, and a classic Belfast sink adds charm to the kitchen.

The bungalow boasts three generous bedrooms. The principal bedroom, located at the front of the property, features a bay window offering views over the front garden and up towards Tickenham Hill. Bedrooms 2 and 3 overlook the rear garden, both good-sized rooms, with bedroom 3 currently being used as a home office. This room benefits from French doors opening out to the garden.

The garden features a stunning south facing porcelain sun deck, a pathway leading to a fully insulated summerhouse at the rear which has power and could be used as a home office, workshop, or changing room for the hot tub area on the covered decking. The garden is enclosed by English hedging, evergreen shrubs, bay hedging, Leylandii, and Red Robin, Viburnum, camellias and clematises creating a peaceful and secluded outdoor space.
