Manor House Dolberrow

Churchill, Winscombe

The Manor House is a wonderful family home that exudes character and charm. It offers substantial accommodation and also benefits from a separate 1-bedroom annexe and two paddocks, making it an ideal property for those interested in equestrian pursuits.

Believed to date back to the 1800s, this property was once The Manor House for the small hamlet of Dolberrow. Its historical roots are evident in many original features, such as deep recessed windows, exposed beams, wooden flooring throughout the ground floor, and traditional latched doors together with in the grounds a cave and a limestone kiln. Beautifully presented by the current owners, they have preserved the character and appeal of the house whilst blending it with the comforts of modern living.

Set in a secluded location on the edge of Churchill village, the property benefits from all the village's amenities while offering direct access to bridleways leading to Dolebury Hillfort, a gem within the local Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

The Manor House is approached via a secure gate, with gravelled parking for multiple cars immediately in front. There is also access to the stabling and, to the left of the property, the separate annexe.

A welcoming front door opens into a spacious entrance hall, which includes a practical downstairs cloakroom and stairs to the first floor. To the left, the dining room is a charming space with deep recessed windows and attractive built-in bookshelves. This room opens to the magnificent kitchen/breakfast room, which features a beamed ceiling. The recently fitted kitchen, in a natural sage colour, is complemented by dark worktops and a black 3-oven gas AGA. It also includes an integrated double oven, ceramic hob, dishwasher, fridge-freezer, and a wine fridge. A large central island provides ample space for food preparation, with built-in wine storage and high stool seating.

The final section of the kitchen is light and bright, thanks to Velux windows, and is spacious enough for a large table. Bifold doors open to the garden, seamlessly blending indoor and outdoor living. Outside, there is a dining terrace, perfect for BBQs and entertaining friends and family. To the right of the kitchen are three further ground-floor rooms. The utility room has space for a washing machine and tumble dryer, leading into the gym — a generous space that can accommodate several pieces of equipment. A versatile room, it could serve as an office or playroom. It also offers access back to the hallway. The final room is the boot room, providing ample space for storing coats, shoes, and outdoor equipment, including tack for the stables.

The final reception space is the double sitting room; a lovely area with two sets of French doors that open to the outside. It has a serene atmosphere, with a snug area featuring a Morso log burner set on a contemporary glass hearth.

Upstairs, there are five bedrooms, one of which is currently arranged as a study. The principal suite is a real haven, separate from the other bedrooms it comprises a double bedroom, a spacious dressing room with a large bank of storage cupboards, and an elegant bathroom with a spa-like feel, thanks to its generous proportions, contemporary styling, and twin basins.

Bedroom two is a good-sized double with an ensuite bathroom, and the remaining three bedrooms are served by the family bathroom, which includes a white 3-piece suite with shower over bath.
