🏠 EPC Rating D

A magnificent wing of a Grade II Listed home, 'Butlers Quarters' is a truly unique and charming home located in a delightful setting on the edge of the thriving Market town of Melksham. The property has a real sense of arrival as it is approached through electric gates and up a long driveway into Butler Quarters' own large driveway and front gardens enclosed by ranch style fencing.

Internally, an entrance hall with oak flooring and refitted downstairs cloakroom leads through to a stunning 23'10 x 21'10 triple aspect sitting/dining room with oak flooring and Bath stone fireplace. A beautiful light and airy room to entertain in. Also set off the hall is a bespoke kitchen with granite worktops and upstands, an integrated fridge/freezer, gas Range style cooker and dishwasher. There is a separate study with fitted desk and shelving and a large double bedroom with 3 sash windows a range of wardrobes and a door into a luxurious en suite shower room with a contemporary radiator and quality finish. On the first floor there is an equally gorgeous family bathroom with exposed stone walling and a spa bath, plus a dual aspect double bedroom. The third double bedroom is accessed via spiral staircase off the landing and is a great teenagers bedroom.

Outside, the property features a detached double garage with light, power and twin electric doors. An external staircase ascends to a wonderful 25'3 long open plan studio/4th bedroom with a small kitchenette and its own en suite shower room. This would make an ideal annexe or Air BnB opportunity. There is ample parking for the house and studio. Another endearing feature is the stone built 'Garden Pantry' outbuilding with slate roof that is kitted out with a range of kitchen units and oak worktops, Mirroring the same design as the pantry is a lovely outside timber clad garden store with light and power. To the rear is a good sized level lawn with established borders and a large sun terrace with outside lights and a Listed dovecote.
