🏠 EPC Rating

Dating back to circa 1820, this unique and characterful 3-bedroom semi-detached home, situated in the sought after village of Coulston, offers a purchaser a fantastic opportunity to mark their own stamp on this charming home.

Entering through the front door, an entrance porch invites you in. Upon entering and heading off to your left, there is a convenient utility room with external access, leading through to a downstairs W/C. The first of 3 flexible reception rooms, located next to the kitchen, is currently used as a dining room has a dual aspect with French patio style doors leading to the rear garden. The next flexible reception room is accessed via a few steps up from the dining room, offering great character features including exposed timbers and brick whilst boasting a wood-burning stove. Towards the rear of the home, a 3rd & final reception room, with French patio doors, this would make for a lovely garden room/snug. The spacious, modern kitchen is a real delight, it boasts a range of integral appliances including electric hob, double electric oven & grill, fridge/freezer, whilst a Rayburn with brick surround enhances the character in this room.

On the first floor, a large landing leads you to the 3-bedrooms. The dual aspect principal bedroom has built in wardrobes and en-suite shower room. A further 2 double bedrooms and family bathroom complete the first floor accommodation.

Externally, there is a garage and off-street parking available to the front, with an idyllic, peaceful, south easterly, garden to the rear, mostly laid to lawn with a patio area.

Situation

The property is well situated in this popular village. The adjoining villages of Erlestoke and Edington provide excellent public houses- The George & Dragon and the Three Daggers, a micro brewery, farm shop and a golf club, whilst the local bus route provides access to the primary and secondary schools in Great Cheverell and Market Lavington. The renowned Dauntsey's School can be found in West Lavington, and the historic market town of Devizes is approximately 5 miles to the north providing town centre shopping, a leisure centre, cinema, museum and theatre. The centres of Chippenham, Trowbridge, Salisbury, Bath, Swindon and Marlborough are all within a 20 miles radius. There is also a mainline railway station at Westbury.
