The prestigious Long Street is well known for its array of fine Grade II Listed homes, each with their own individual characteristics and Number 16 is no exception. Behind the front door is a deceptively spacious (1620 sqft) with well laid out accommodation arranged over 3 floors and an additional cellar offering great potential for conversion to a habitable room. To the front of the house is a cosy sitting room with exposed wooden floorboards, an inviting log burning stove and a bay window with secondary double glazing. Further down the hall is a large dining room also featuring a log burner, stairs down to the cellar and glazed double doors opening out to the fully enclosed garden. A modern fitted galley kitchen has tiled flooring and is wonderfully light with windows and two skylights. There is a handy utility area just off the kitchen plus a useful downstairs shower room.

On the first floor is the principal bedroom, a great sized double bedroom, with an ornate fireplace, and the incredible main bathroom with an elegant roll top bath, walk-in corner shower, polished wooden floorboards and an attractive original cast iron fireplace. On the second floor there are two further double bedrooms, both with their own personalities and wooden flooring.

Outside, the walled courtyard garden enjoys an excellent amount of privacy and is perfect for al fresco eating and entertaining with a low maintenance terrace stepping up to a small lawn with sleepers and established plants and shrubs.
