🏠 EPC Rating

A charming 4-bedroom Grade II Listed detached home, arranged over three-storeys and offered to the market with no onward chain. Steeped in history and character, the property features original fireplaces, wooden sash windows, exposed beams and a wealth of period detailing throughout, all set within generous mature gardens in the heart of this sought-after Wiltshire village.

The heart of the home is the impressive kitchen/dining room – a wonderful vaulted-ceiling space with a dual-sided log burner at its centre, creating a natural divide between the kitchen area and the raised dining space. This sociable and light-filled room is ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. To the front of the property, the welcoming reception room enjoys a feature fireplace and sash windows, while the cosy snug/office provides an additional seating area or home office space. Completing the ground floor is a useful shower room and W/C.

The first floor offers two generously sized double bedrooms, including the principal bedroom which boasts an en-suite, alongside a well-appointed family bathroom. The second floor comprises two further bedrooms, both with character features and a pleasant outlook, providing flexibility for guest rooms, children's rooms or a study.

The mature gardens are a particular feature of this home, with a choice of seating areas, well-stocked raised beds and a further expanse of lawn beyond, offering a peaceful and private setting. There is also a useful outbuilding, currently utilised as a shed.

A delightful home that blends period charm with versatile living space, all within a popular village location and offered with no onward chain.
