

Barfett Street, London, W10 4NP

£2,500 PCM

Subject to Contract

- Newly refurbished two bedroom house
- Newly fitted white lacquered kitchen with steel handles
- Private rear garden
- Reception room
- Modern fitted family bathroom
- Wooden flooring

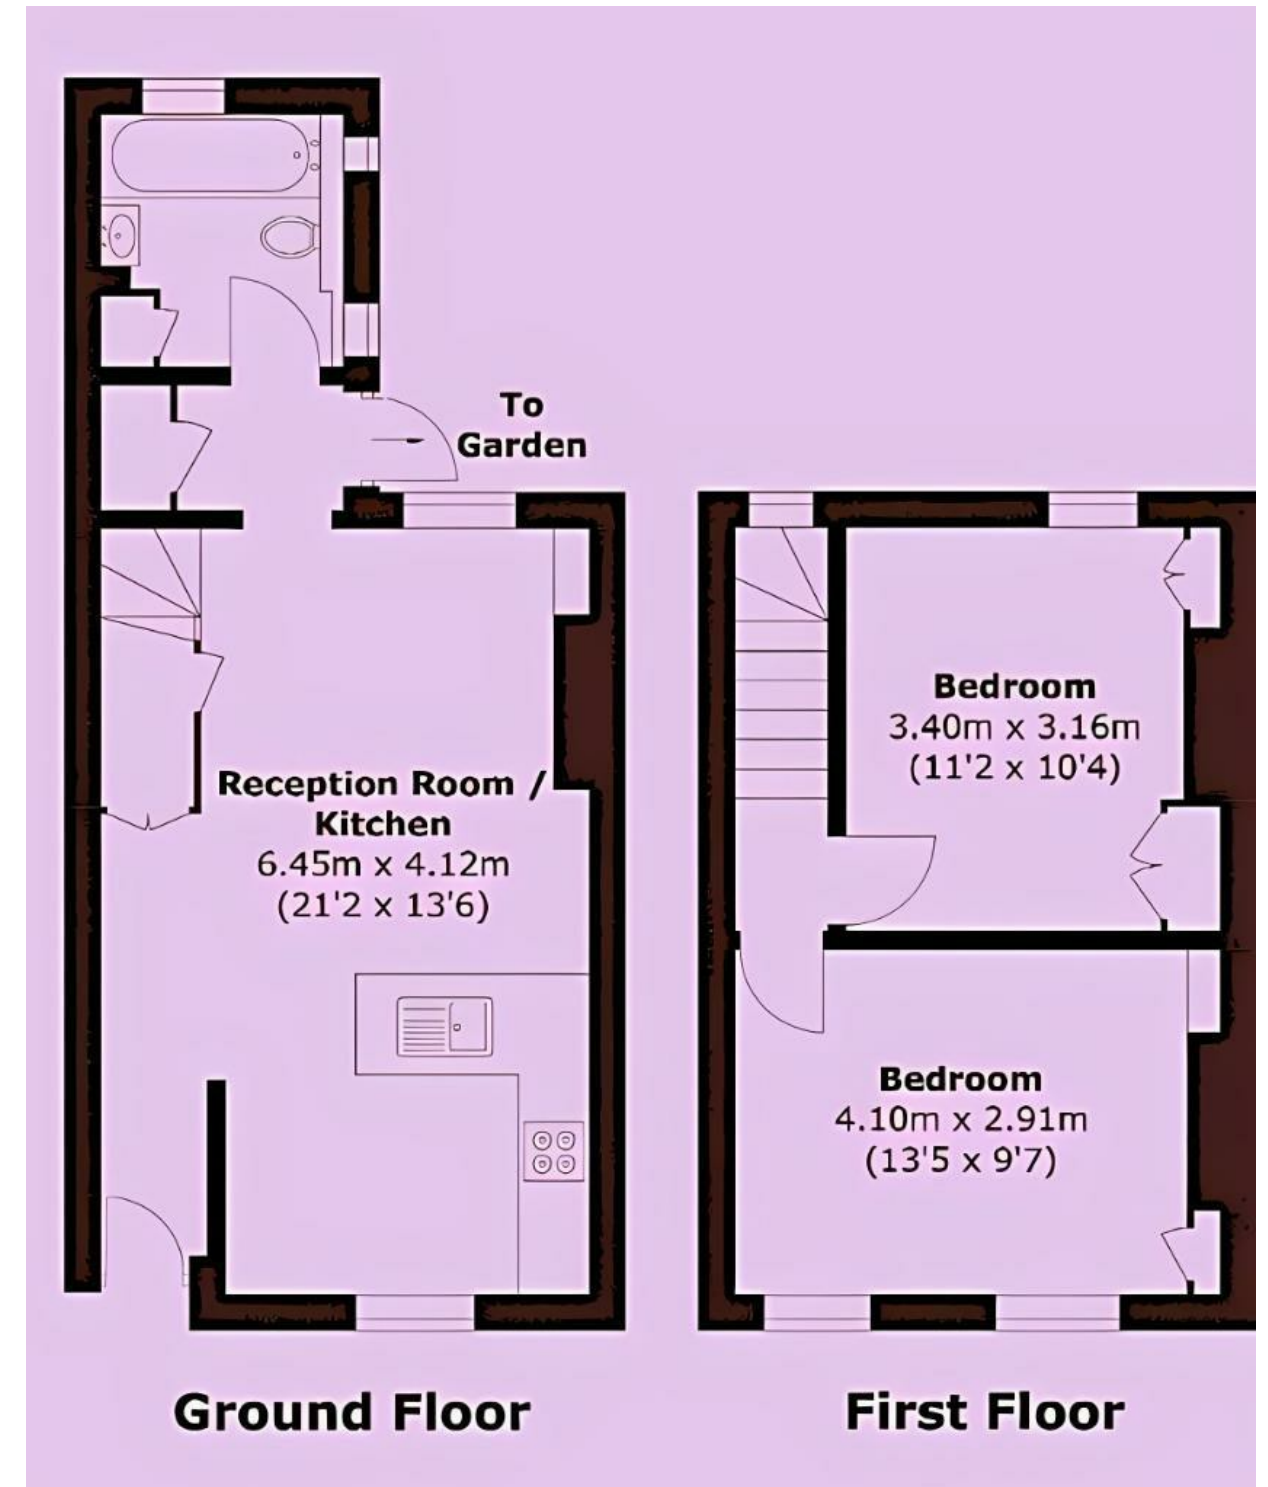

Barfett Street, W10 4NP

Charming Two-Bedroom Cottage with Private Garden – Queen's Park / Portobello Road... beautifully refurbished two double-bedroom cottage is ideally situated on a quiet residential street, just a short walk from the vibrant amenities of Queen's Park, Portobello Road, and Harrow Road.

Arranged over two floors, the property features a spacious reception room with original wooden floorboards, a fully equipped separate eat-in kitchen with direct access to an east-facing private garden, two generous double bedrooms, and a modern family bathroom. Finished in neutral décor and presented in excellent condition throughout, this home perfectly combines period charm with modern comfort.

Conveniently located within walking distance of Westbourne Park Station (Hammersmith & City Line), it offers excellent transport links to Central London and beyond. Available now, furnished or unfurnished.

Tenure

Price £2,500 PCM Subject to Contract

Viewing by appointment , through joint sole agents Warwick Estate Agents