This eye-catching energy efficient new build detached house boasts a creative bespoke build and exhilarating modern, luxury accommodation totalling 2059 square feet, that is finished to the very highest specification. Far superior to your standard new build home these properties are also priced competitively with prices starting as low as £425,000 (which equates to just over £206 per sq.ft.) and come with high quality fixtures and fittings, internal flooring throughout, tarmac driveways, and landscaped gardens. This property also boasts a larger than average plot which will be landscaped by the builder to provide extensive patio areas and enjoys a discreet location in the popular area of Coppull with ample off road parking to front leading to a large integral garage with electronic up and over door. This stunning home spans three floors, showcasing exceptional attention to detail and striking design. There is a spacious front lounge plus a superb open-plan living/dining kitchen, complete with built-in appliances, Quartz worktops, and a large island perfect for entertaining. A cloakroom/WC, separate utility room and a fully insulated sunroom at the rear provide additional stylish family space. The sunroom and kitchen both feature bi-fold doors, creating a seamless transition to the large patio that runs the full width of the house, ideal for outdoor living. Upstairs, you'll find four spacious double bedrooms, including a fantastic top-floor suite, three sleek tiled bathrooms, and a fifth single bedroom or study. This home is highly insulated and energy-efficient, featuring high-quality double glazing, air source heating, and an EV charger. Downstairs, you'll appreciate the upgraded designer radiators, light and socket switches. The build is now finished with only outside landscaping to be finished by the developer. All these works will be completed prior to a buyer completing on the sale meaning the house is available for a quick sale.
