YOUR HOME

Chapel Lane, Wallingford
£495,000

Welcome to 'Chapel Mews' - Tucked away in the heart of Benson, this truly unique two-bedroom home seamlessly blends historic charm with contemporary luxury. Finished to the highest standard, the property is packed with character and distinctive features.

Upon entering, you are welcomed by Ted Tod Husk flooring, which flows throughout the home, adding warmth and sophistication. The high-end kitchen is a chef's delight, featuring a De Dietrich oven and hob alongside a boiling water tap, ensuring style meets functionality. A standout feature is the Norwich Gaol Prison door, which leads to a striking wet-room-style shower, while an additional door provides access to a utility room that extends into the converted garage, offering versatile living or workspace options.

Rising to the first floor, you are greeted by an impressive reception hall, where the original exterior chapel wall has been thoughtfully incorporated as a stunning feature. The exposed wooden beams, log burner, and Velux windows create a light-filled space with dramatic high ceilings, perfect for relaxing or entertaining.

The spacious main bedroom enjoys dual-aspect windows and a luxurious freestanding bath, adding a boutique hotel feel to your private retreat. Overlooking the reception area, bedroom two is an inviting space, complete with Velux windows and even room for a hammock, offering a creative and serene escape.

Blending history with modern elegance, this home offers character, craftsmanship, and an enviable village location.
