A Rare Historic Residence in an Enchanting Setting. Nestled within the serene and private grounds of the historic Newminster Abbey Estate, The Stables offers an opportunity to own a beautifully converted period home steeped in heritage and character. Once serving as the original stables to the grand Newminster Abbey House, this exceptional detached residence combines charm with modern comfort, set against the backdrop of one of Northumberland's most storied locations.

Dating back to the early 20th century, the property was thoughtfully converted and has since been extended from its original equestrian use into a substantial family home. The house enjoys an enviable position within the secluded estate, adjacent to the ruins of the 12th-century Newminster Abbey, founded in 1137 by Cistercian monks and later enhanced and preserved by Sir George Renwick in the early 1900s. The abbey ruins, now a Scheduled Ancient Monument, offer a dramatic and peaceful setting, rarely matched in residential property.

Accessed via a tree lined private driveway, The Stables is surrounded by mature woodland and landscaped grounds, along with a only a few other properties, offering both privacy and tranquillity just moments from Morpeth town centre. The location combines rural charm with convenience with Morpeth offering excellent local amenities, schools, transport links, and scenic river walks are all within easy reach.
