Bermuda Terrace is a quiet traffic-free walkway running alongside Histon Road Cemetery over which there is a fine open outlook. It is situated between French's road and Histon Road, about 1 mile north of the City Centre. There are local shops and other facilities along Victoria Road and Histon Road and the well regarded St Lukes CofE primary school is around the corner in French's Road. The river and Jesus Green is also nearby.

This end terrace Victorian house, which retains much of its original character, benefits from a loft conversion. There is vehicular access from Bermuda Road at the rear and there is a parking space at the end of the garden.
