DESCRIPTION

Situated in an enviable rural location, a stunning and flexible property which offers either extensive four bedroom accommodation, or splits easily to create a three bedroom home with a one bedroom annex. The property also benefits from glorious private sunny gardens and grounds, approaching three acres of land with three extensively tree lined sheltered paddocks with vehicular access from the road or main property. Additionally there's an impressive 60Ft purpose built stable block with attached hay store, currently used as a Garage/Workshop and a run of former pigstys which have been roofed over and now offers over 30Ft of greenhouse space along with a couple of useful sheds. The property also benefits from owned solar panels which currently generate between £1500 and £2000 of income annually along with cheaper day time electricity. Accommodation in brief includes, two separate Kitchens, two separate Living rooms, four Bedrooms, Utility room, a Shower room, Bathroom and Loft room. there is also lapsed planning permission for extension into the roof. A superb property in a wonderful location - early viewing advised.

SITUATION

Spring Farm occupies an idyllic position in the rural hamlet of Black Rock, and enjoys stunning views from almost all parts of the property across Cornish countryside to the south coast in the distance. Black Rock lies close to the village of Praze, and the charming village of Crowan. the Market town of Camborne with a range of National outlets is just over four miles away, and the coastal Town of Hayle is just 8 Miles distant, with it's miles of golden sands. The county town of Truro is approximately 17 miles by car, with the south coast town of Falmouth in touching distance, just 13 miles away.
