The Location & Property

Set within the heart of St Ives and only a short walk away from the picturesque harbourside, three award winning beaches and maze of cobbled streets that offer a wide variety of quality restaurants, café bars and shops. St Ives has fast become one of the UK's foremost holiday destinations. With its eclectic mix of pretty Cornish Cottages the town though it has changed enormously over the years still retains its charm and character. There are three award winning beaches including the famed surfing beach of Porthmeor where you are also able to find The Tate St Ives. The town offers its own train station linking into the main line at St Erth from where you are able to travel into the home counties and beyond. Newquay airport is only 30 minutes away and offers direct flights into most of the UK's airports along with many European destinations.

The property is believed to have been built in the mid 19th century and was for a number of years a well renowned tea shop. Now the property offers spacious 4 bedroom living with the benefit of stunning views into the harbour of St Ives and across to Smeatons pier and the arches as well as out to sea. Whilst still offering a wealth of charm and character the property also encompasses modern living. The open plan living space creates a great family area. There is access from here down into the cellar. Set over the first and second floor are 4 excellent size bedrooms of which 3 offer ensuite facilities. This charming property creates the ideal investment or holiday let or indeed an ideal family home.
