The Property and Location

Set within the heart of St Ives and within the iconic Digey. The cottage is only yards way from Porthmeor Beach and a short walk from Fore Street and the picturesque harbour front where there is an array of quality restaurants, café bars and shops. St Ives has fast become one of the UK's foremost holiday destinations offering three award winning golden sandy beaches with pretty cobbled streets lined with traditional fisherman cottages. St Ives offers its own branch line which leads into the Home Counties via St Erth train Station. The A30 is just 4 miles away and gives access to all the major market towns and coastal villages along with leading into the Cathedral City of Truro. Newquay airport is approximately 45 minutes to the east and offers direct links into the main airports of the UK along with direct flights to many European destinations .

The property is a charming traditional fisherman's cottage and still retains its character and charm whilst integrating modern living. Offering open plan living with a large Inglenook fireplace and two double bedrooms. The property is a busy holiday let and can be purchased as seen.(Excluding personal artwork). A viewing of the lovely cottage is highly recommended.
