No.3 Judges Walk is positioned about halfway up the road has been the subject of a superb renovation programme in the last five years creating a stylish, light, and functional home. The works have enhanced the period detail throughout with particular focus on the windows, panelling, panelled doors, coving and exposed fireplaces. This delightful home enjoys striking rendered facades and provides any buyer with a great deal of privacy from the private shared drive; the views back to the house from the south facing gardens at the rear in particular are delightful.
