EVERYTHING AND MORE.....We are excited introduce to you these Georgian & Victorian style homes standing proud in the village of Morton in North East Derbyshire.

Morton is a civil parish and village nestled just north of Alfreton with a host of village amenities on the doorstep, including two pubs, a village hall, shops, two country parks and a children's playground. Larger towns including Alfreton, Chesterfield and Sutton-in-Ashfield are all reachable by a regular bus service too, making this development ideally located for those looking for the best of both worlds.

The Thornton is an exceptional three bedroom semi-detached home boasting rear gardens and a single detached garage. Furthermore you can expect 3 well proportioned bedrooms, the master having an en-suite, and dressing area, a family bathroom and downstairs WC. The open plan kitchen diner and lounge is perfect for modern family living.

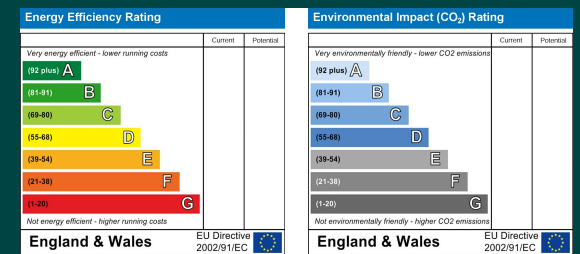

Viewings are highly recommended to appreciate the quality workmanship this developer has to offer. Call the Chesterfield branch to arrange your appointment.
