101 QUEENS CROFT

Positioned on a popular residential area close to a range of amenities and facilities, 101 Queens Croft is an excellent starter home – a well-proportioned semi-detached property, presented in turn key condition, the property would make an excellent family home hosting comfortable living space, two bedrooms, a well-appointed garden with parking for several cars and a garage. The ground floor hosts a spacious hall, with a bright breakfasting kitchen sitting to the front and a comfortable lounge to the rear. Upstairs, two double bedrooms are serviced by a family bathroom, with a further appointment of in-built storage to the master. The garden is a fantastic complement to the accommodation, appealing to both families or those retirees keen on outdoor space; fully enclosed and level, and hosts easily maintained space for further landscaping as required.

LOCATION

Kelso, which lies at the meeting point of the Tweed and Teviot rivers, is one of the most attractive and unspoiled towns in the Borders. Notable features are the 12th Century Abbey, the Flemish style cobbled square, Floors Castle and the old bridge across the Tweed. The town has good educational and sporting facilities and many quality shops. The area has much to offer those interested in country pursuits with fishing on the Tweed and is an increasingly sought after location within the Borders.
