GUIDE PRICE £360,000 - £380,000. Set in one of Wickersley's most sought-after residential pockets, this detached bungalow at Moorlands offers a rare opportunity to purchase a home with a prime position and excellent potential. It's offered to the market with no onward chain and would suit a range of buyers – whether downsizers looking for a quieter pace, or anyone ready to take on a property that they can personalise to their own taste. Originally built as a three-bedroom home, it's currently configured as a two-bedroom with an adjoining dining room, showing flexibility in layout that could easily be adapted once again depending on what's needed.

From the outside, the home has a neat kerb appeal. The driveway offers ample off-road parking and leads to a single garage with internal access through the side porch. The front garden is low-maintenance with decorative pebbles and mature shrubs adding texture and privacy. Round the back, the garden is mostly paved, again keeping maintenance to a minimum, while still providing space for planting and outdoor seating.

Inside, the bungalow starts with a practical front porch, ideal for shoes and coats before stepping into the entrance hallway. Both of the bedrooms are good-sized doubles and come with built-in wardrobes, providing plenty of storage without eating into floor space. The bathroom sits centrally off the hallway and features a classic three-piece suite with bath, pedestal sink and WC.

The lounge sits to the rear and is a bright space, thanks to the connection to both the conservatory and dining room. A fire surround provides a focal point, while the archway to the dining area (which used to be the third bedroom) adds flow and flexibility. This room could easily be returned to a bedroom if preferred, or kept as a dining space as it is now, particularly as it connects directly to the conservatory. The conservatory offers a peaceful space looking out over the garden, with doors opening up for fresh air in the warmer months.

The kitchen is positioned to the side of the property and is fitted with a range of white wall and base units, offering a decent amount of worktop space. There's room here for a breakfast table too, making it a practical and sociable layout for day-to-day use. From the kitchen, a side porch leads to a separate storage room and gives access into the garage, which is a great bonus for anyone who values secure storage or is looking to convert part of the space in the future. Moorlands is a quiet, residential area with excellent connections. Wickersley itself is a well-established village, popular for its mix of local amenities and community feel. Just a short walk away are shops, cafes, pubs, and restaurants, while everyday essentials are taken care of with a nearby Co-op and Morrisons in Bramley, plus Aldi and Tesco Extra a little further out.

Commuters are well placed here too – the M18 and M1 motorways are within easy reach, making Sheffield, Rotherham and Doncaster all accessible by car. Public transport links are also strong, with regular buses serving the local area and beyond. For families, the local schooling is a particular draw – Wickersley School and Sports College is nearby and has a strong reputation, while primary options include Northfield Lane Primary School and Bramley Sunnyside. This is a solid, well-located property that offers good proportions throughout, a manageable plot, and the scope to improve and adapt. It ticks a lot of boxes for those looking for one-level living in a popular, well-connected spot. With no onward chain, the sale should be straightforward – making this an excellent opportunity to move quickly for the right buyer.
