Mitford Steads Mitford, Morpeth, NE61 3QB

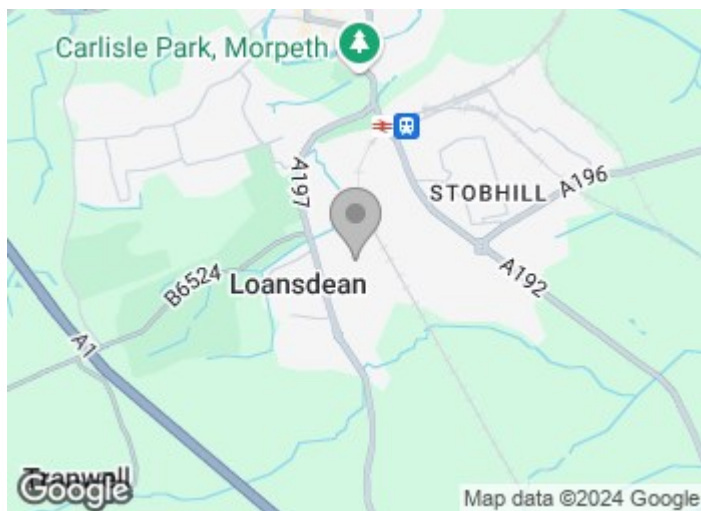

Trading Places are honoured to bring to the rental market this stunning farmhouse situated in the sought after village of Mitford, Morpeth.

Entering the hallway you are greeted by high ceilings and tasteful parquet flooring, the first reception room on your left would make an ideal study or snug room. Passageway through to the large open kitchen in a typical 'country shaker' style. Fitted appliances including large fridge freezer and range, along with a centre piece Victorian stove and vertical column radiators. Accompanied by utility room and rear entrance. Close by are a second reception room and modern family bathroom. Main central reception room offers views over the front lawn, with adjoining dining room which features Velux windows, providing a bright and airy entertaining space. Stairs to the first floor and central landing provides access to four generous sized bedrooms with en-suites to the master bedrooms. There is also a central W/C. Large newly fitted UPVC windows provides ample natural light into the rooms while eliminating drafts typically found in period properties. Externally the property provides private parking through a gated entrance and a generous front lawn space.
