Summary

Situated in the heart of Dorchester, this charming one-bedroom semi-detached house on Cromwell Road presents an excellent opportunity for a single occupant or a couple seeking a comfortable home. The property boasts a well-designed layout that includes a welcoming lounge, a separate kitchen, a spacious double bedroom, and a shower room.

One of the standout features of this property is its prime location. Just a stone's throw from Dorchester South train station, residents can enjoy direct links to London Waterloo, making commuting a breeze. The vibrant Brewery Square, with its delightful array of boutique shops and popular restaurants, is merely minutes away, offering a lively atmosphere for socialising and leisure.

The property is complemented by two gardens, located at the front and side, providing a lovely outdoor space to relax. Additionally, there is an allocated parking space conveniently situated opposite the house, ensuring ease of access for residents and guests alike.

Dorchester itself is a town rich in history, positioned along the stunning Jurassic Coastline and surrounded by picturesque rural countryside. The town offers a diverse range of amenities, including independent boutiques, cafes, and shops, as well as two cinemas, several museums, and leisure facilities. The weekly market adds to the local charm, while the excellent selection of restaurants and public houses cater to various tastes.

Families will appreciate the highly regarded catchment schools, such as St Osmund's School and Thomas Hardy School, which are well-known for their quality education. Furthermore, essential services, including doctors' and dentist surgeries, along with the Dorset County Hospital, are conveniently close by.

This property is not just a home; it is a gateway to the vibrant lifestyle that Dorchester has to offer.
