£365,000

1 1 1

Description

A delightful one-bedroom attached Grade II listed house, perfectly blending historic charm including exposed timber beams and cosy fireplace with the luxury of contemporary comforts offering a warm and inviting atmosphere.

The generous living room showcases character beams and a stunning fireplace adjoining the modern fitted kitchen which is stylish and well-equipped seamlessly blending with the cottage's traditional elements.

Upstairs, you will find a well-appointed bathroom featuring modern fixtures and a double bedroom, offering a peaceful retreat.

Step outside to discover an easy-to-maintain, pretty garden that provides a perfect setting for outdoor enjoyment, this charming garden is a delightful space for all occasions.

Adding to the allure of this property is a detached one-bedroom annexe, currently rented out as a holiday let. This self-contained unit offers guests a comfortable and private stay, making it an excellent source of additional income.
