3 Castle View

Sat on the outskirts on the village centre with stunning views of the historical Carisbrooke Castle. The property' Victorian character has been preserved whilst benefiting from a modern twist, making it uniquely individual for a modern family lifestyle.

Sympathetically refurbished and remodelled to an exceptionally high standard with all floorings included. The developers have spent a considerable amount of time and effort focusing on the detail taking full advantage of the original building's grand dimensions by offering unusually generous room dimensions and ceiling heights (all four main principal rooms are approx 20ft x16ft) traditional panelling, ornate Victorian door frames and high skirting boards. All interiors have been designed with the modern family in mind, using current high specification insulation standards and reducing general running costs playing a key factor.

The property benefits from allocated off road parking with an electric charging point. Additional three visitor spaces available. Viewings are highly recommended to appreciate the unique design and generous amount of space this home has to offer.
