

21 Knowl Road

Mirfield, WF14 8DJ

A well-presented four-bedroom mid-terrace property offering spacious and flexible accommodation. This Victorian period home retains original features that add character, while providing practical living space suitable for families or professionals. Conveniently located within walking distance of Mirfield town centre, the property benefits from easy access to a range of local amenities, well-regarded schools, and the railway station, which offers direct links to nearby towns and cities, including a direct service to London. Also within close proximity to motorway networks. Externally, the low-maintenance garden provides an excellent space to sit out and relax or entertain guests. This property presents a great opportunity to own a characterful home in a highly accessible and desirable location.
