

Beech Croft 73 Crowlees Road , Mirfield, WF14 9PG

FOR SALE WITH NO CHAIN! A charming and historic five bedroom family home. Originally built in 1871 and designed by George Gilbert Scott, this stunning property was once a 10-bedroom vicarage for the Parish Church before being thoughtfully divided into three elegant residences - of which Beech Croft is one. Steeped in history and character, the home showcases an array of original period features while offering spacious, versatile living for today's modern family. Tucked away in a peaceful, private setting, yet just a short walk to the town centre, local shops, and the highly regarded Crowlees Primary School, Beech Croft combines comfort with convenience. Excellent transport links include a railway station within a 15-minute walk—providing connections to Huddersfield, Leeds, Manchester, and direct services to London—as well as easy access to nearby motorway networks. Surrounded by generous, well-maintained gardens, this exceptional home offers ample outdoor space to relax and entertain, alongside a gated driveway and a double garage for secure parking.
