LOCAL AMENITIES

Eastcote is a rural village situated off the A5 some 3 miles north of the historic town of Towcester. It is well situated for access to the major road network. There is an Intercity train service at Milton Keynes, some 18 miles distant, and at Northampton. M1 junction 15A is approximately 4 miles away. M40 junction 11 is at Banbury, approximately 18 miles away.

HOW TO GET THERE

From Northampton head west, joining the A508 (London Road) towards Road. After about a mile, merge briefly onto the A45/A428 following signs for Towcester or Telford. At the roundabout, take the exit onto the A5 dual carriageway heading west toward Towcester and Brackley. Continue on the A5 for approximately four miles, then look for a right turn onto Banbury Lane, signposted for Eastcote and Pattishall. Follow Banbury Lane directly into Eastcote village.
