Camberwell New Road, SE5

The reception room is flooded with lots of natural light, benefitting from having a large bay sash window with views over the communal gardens. All three bedrooms are equal in size, the main bedroom is located to the front of the flat and has a superb original marble fireplace, the remaining two double bedrooms are to the rear overlooking the gardens.

The high specification fully fitted kitchen is large enough for table and chairs, perfect for those who love to cook and entertain. Refurbished throughout with great thought into retaining the properties character, leaving the next buyer nothing to do but move in. The property has an allocated parking space and is being sold with no onward chain.
