George Mathers Road, SE11

This spacious home is well laid out and is flooded with lots of natural light. The reception room benefits from floor to ceiling doors which open onto a large private south facing terrace, spanning the full width of the room. The open kitchen offers a great deal of space for entertaining and is fully integrated.

The main bedroom has an en suite and is finished with built in wardrobes. There is a unique bay, which makes an excellent space for a working from home setup. There is a generous second bedroom and a great deal of storage throughout.

With so many modern build apartments it can be difficult to stand out. This one does. Low service charges, efficient, a great sense of community, immaculate communal gardens and a real sense of security; all within a quiet bubble of its own, on the doorstep of both Elephant and Castle and Kennington.
