DESCRIPTION

Horseshoe House is a beautifully presented Georgian-style property, rich in history and charm. This distinguished residence occupies a prominent position in the heart of the desirable village of Filkins. Since 2006, the current owners have meticulously updated the home, blending modern comfort with period character to create a warm and inviting living space.

The property benefits from a private patio terrace, a lawned garden, and a dedicated BBQ area, all surrounded by well-stocked borders that enhance its charm. Additional features include driveway parking, a detached garage with workshop, offering both practicality and versatility. Ideal as a family home or a peaceful village retreat, Horseshoe House seamlessly combines character with modern convenience.
