Nestled on the peaceful southern fringes of Haslemere within the South Downs National Park, Fir Tree Cottage is a beautifully presented two-bedroom character cottage surrounded by approximately 14 acres of communal gardens and woodland.

Accessed via a private driveway winding through bluebell woods, the property enjoys stunning south-westerly views and immediate access to National Trust-maintained pathways and bridleways.

Tastefully modernised and offered with no onward chain, the cottage features oak flooring throughout, a neutral Farrow & Ball colour palette, and a Neptune kitchen equipped with high-quality appliances, including a Neff oven, induction hob, and Miele dishwasher. The adjoining utility room provides additional storage and includes a Miele washing machine and vented tumble dryer, with access to the rear garden. The light-filled dining and living rooms both offer beautiful front-facing views, while the ground floor also includes Lutron lighting controls and a convenient cloakroom.
