Hawkstone is a charming and beautifully presented semi-detached family home, built at the turn of the 20th century. Thoughtfully updated, the property seamlessly blends period features—including high ceilings, sash windows, and generously proportioned rooms—with a fresh, modern aesthetic. Spread across three floors, Hawkstone offers versatile living spaces that cater to modern family life. Upon entering through the front door, you are welcomed into a reception hall that leads to the elegant sitting room. With its high ceiling, sash windows flooding the space with natural light, and a cosy open fire, this room exudes warmth and character. The reception hall flows into a spacious dining room, perfect for family meals and entertaining, offering views of the rear garden and direct access to the kitchen. The kitchen is fitted with stylish Shaker units and durable quartz work surfaces, including a breakfast bar. A range cooker and space for a dishwasher complete the practical yet sophisticated design. Steps lead to a well-equipped utility room featuring a butler sink, space for a fridge/freezer, ample storage cupboards, and access to the rear garden through a part-glazed door.

On the first floor, you'll find two generous double bedrooms and a beautifully refitted family bathroom. The bathroom boasts a contemporary design, complete with a double-ended bath, a large period-style washbasin, and a W.C. The second floor is dedicated to the main bedroom, which enjoys stunning views over Camelsdale. This serene retreat includes a charming window seat to take in the outlook, extensive fitted wardrobes and cupboards, and an impressive ensuite shower room.

The front of the property features twin parking spaces framed by a low brick wall, with a level lawn and wide paved terrace leading to the front door. A path provides access to the rear garden, which benefits from a sunny south-westerly orientation. The garden includes a raised patio, ideal for outdoor dining, a lawned area, and a timber garden shed.
