Location: Located within an exclusive development, 45 Tennysons Way overlooks peaceful woodland while remaining just a short walk from the amenities of Grayshott. This sought-after village, on the Hampshire/Surrey border, is just four miles from Haslemere, 16 miles from Guildford, and 46 miles southwest of central London. The nearby A3 provides easy road links to London and the South Coast, while Haslemere and Farnham railway stations offer direct services to London Waterloo. Grayshott itself is a vibrant village with a range of independent shops, a GP surgery, Grayshott CE Primary School, a village hall, and a traditional pub, the Fox and Pelican. Applegarth Farm, with its renowned restaurant and farm shop, is also close by.
