A rare chance to acquire a character, four bedroom detached family home which has been thoughtfully extended and improved by the current owners, and within a short walk of Haslemere High Street and the mainline station.

Benefiting from an elevated position set above College Hill the property benefits from views across Haslemere to the front and can be approached on foot via steps at one end of the plot or via a block paved driveway at the other end.

The driveway provides excellent off street parking and leads to a detached single garage with further parking to the side. Entering the garden the house is set toward the rear of the plot with a lawn to the front and one side whilst steps climb a bank strewn with flowers and shrubs to a Summerhouse at the highest point of the garden which again enjoys views.
