Yorick Cottage is a handsome and beautifully presented detached Victorian home dating back to 1879. The property offers the perfect blend of period charm and contemporary comfort, thoughtfully extended and upgraded to suit modern family living.

From the moment you step through the covered porch and traditional Victorian front door, you are greeted by a home that is full of character, featuring a wealth of retained original features and impressively high ceilings throughout the ground floor, enhancing the sense of light and space.

At the heart of the property is an inviting L-shaped reception area, which includes a generous sitting/dining room with a working open fireplace and a bright triple-aspect family room with French doors opening out to the rear terrace. These spaces offer the perfect mix of warmth and openness, ideal for both relaxing and entertaining.

Continued Text

The modern kitchen is well-appointed with Neff appliances, a practical breakfast bar, and thoughtful storage solutions, while a stylish ground-floor wet room with a power shower adds convenience and flexibility. Upstairs, the accommodation continues to impress with four well-proportioned bedrooms, including three doubles. Two of the bedrooms benefit from fitted wardrobes, and the fourth bedroom currently serves as a home office or study. A contemporary family bathroom completes the first floor.

Outside, the wrap-around gardens are a real highlight, featuring a south-east facing lawn, a large rear terrace ideal for morning and early afternoon sun, and a charming front and side cottage garden with a second terrace that enjoys the late afternoon light. Recently added summer house and garden shed provide extra lifestyle or storage options.

To the front, the property benefits from a driveway, offering valuable off-street parking for 2 cars.

Yorick Cottage is a wonderful example of a classic Victorian home, tastefully updated to offer spacious, flexible living in a peaceful yet convenient setting.
