The property has accommodation over two floors, with all the main rooms enjoying views over the garden. There is scope to extend the house and add considerably to the space of the ground floor and first floor if required. Presently, the ground floor provides a large sitting room with an open fireplace and two pairs of sliding doors to the garden, the dining room opens into the conservatory, and the kitchen is to one side with a utility room. The double garage can be accessed from the utility room and has electric up and over door. The first floor has the main bedroom with ensuite bathroom, and there are three further double bedrooms, with one ensuite and a family bathroom. The loft could provide further accommodation subject to the necessary consent. The gardens are particularly attractive and are laid to lawn and flanked by well-stocked herbaceous borders. There are several mature trees, including horse chestnut and blue cedar. The heated swimming pool is to one side by the open-fronted games room and is partially screened by herbaceous borders. The front garden is laid to lawn and there is parking for several vehicles.
