DESCRIPTION

The stunning chef's kitchen boasts marble countertops, a spacious island, premium appliances, and whole-house water filtration system, with underfloor heating ensuring year-round comfort. Multiple skylights bathe the space in natural light, complementing the French doors that open to the south-facing garden. The home offers five bedrooms, four with luxurious en-suites, including three bedrooms with elegant Juliet balconies. The magnificent principal suite serves as a private sanctuary, complete with two walk-in closets, a Juliet balcony, and a lavish spa-inspired bathroom featuring a massage spa tub and smart fixtures. Additional highlights include a feature fireplace in the living area, creating a cosy ambiance for family gatherings. Outside, the landscaped garden offers a peaceful retreat, while the specious brick driveway with electric gates and double garage provide practicality.

LOCATION

Ideally positioned, the property enjoys excellent transport links to Oxford Station (direct to London), the A34, and A420. Families benefit from proximity to top schools including Matthew Arnold School, with Waitrose and charming Cumnor village amenities and Westway shopping centre nearby. A rare opportunity to acquire this meticulously designed family home blending luxury, comfort, and convenience in one of Oxford's most coveted locations – contact us today to arrange a private viewing.
