A double-fronted, four bedroom townhouse in the heart of Old Town, Stratford-upon-Avon, sympathetically extended and renovated to an exceptional standard.

18 Broad Street is a double-fronted, mid-terraced townhouse built in 1834, which has been sympathetically extended and renovated to an exceptional standard by the current owner. The outstanding craftsmanship and attention to detail are evident throughout, making this house incredibly special. Everything in the house is bespoke and designed with meticulous detail.

Entrance hallway with parquet flooring and pocket sliding doors open to the snug/ sitting room. The front sash windows are dressed with shutters, both upstairs and downstairs. The dining room has a front aspect, a decorative fireplace and original flagstone flooring. From the dining area, you step down into the kitchen, which is finished to an impressive standard and features a large central island with breakfast seating, stone worktops and solid timber units. Integrated appliances include a Fisher & Paykel range cooker, Bosch dishwasher, and there is space for a freestanding fridge/freezer. Microcement flooring gives you a seamless surface finish from the kitchen into the sitting room, with underfloor heating continuing into the utility, larder and guest cloakroom. A generous sitting room has full height crittall windows and a door to the garden. A set of hardwood doors lead from the kitchen to a courtyard seating area.

The staircase is striking, with full-height crittall windows, a glass roof and solid oak stairs.

With lovely views over the rear garden, the principal bedroom is generous in size and has parquet flooring, which continues into the walk-in dressing room fitted with bespoke cabinetry. En suite shower room with marble tiled flooring, electric underfloor heating and a walk-in shower with dual shower head. Double bedroom with hardwood double doors and a Juliet balcony overlooking the garden. Two further double bedrooms have a front aspect and original fireplaces, with the larger bedroom having a small walk-in cupboard. Good-sized family bathroom with contemporary tiling, heated towel rail and panelling. Both bathrooms have Grohe sanitaryware and an electric opening skylight.

Outside

Outside, the garden has been landscaped beautifully and is completely walled. For town, it's very private. The courtyard seating area is a pretty area ideal for entertaining. Steps rise to the lawned area with timber framed greenhouse. Box hedging frames the top terrace lined with pleached trees offering privacy. Beyond here is a "utility area" where the shed can be found. There is gated side access from the garden through a private passageway to the front of the house. Parking is available on-street at the front of the property.

Services

All main services are connected to the property. Gas-fired central heating.
