The property

Welcombe Bank Farm was built in the 1800s and is an attractive period farmhouse with many character details, including exposed timbers, stone floors and open fireplaces.

One is welcomed into the property via a glazed atrium with flagstone flooring leading to the entrance to the farmhouse. The reception hall has a beautiful flagstone floor and doors radiating off to the principal reception rooms. These include a dual-aspect drawing room with an open fireplace and double doors opening onto the rear garden, a dual-aspect dining room with beautiful views across the rear garden and a delightful sitting room. There is a delightful farmhouse-style kitchen/breakfast room with a range of wall and base units, granite worktops, an AGA, and a central island. A staircase rises from the kitchen to a useful room above, currently used as a study. The ground floor accommodation is completed via the useful utility room and cloakroom.

The bedroom accommodation is split over two floors. On the first floor is the principal bedroom with an en suite bathroom and built-in cupboards. There is a further en suite bedroom with a walk-in dressing room, a further bedroom with built-in cupboards, and a family bathroom on this floor. There are two double bedrooms on the second floor. All the bedrooms to the rear have the most enviable views across the rolling countryside.

This plan is for guidance only and must not be relied upon as a statement of fact. Attention is drawn to the Important Notice on the last page of the text of the Particulars.

Owl Cottage

Owl Cottage is accessed via the glazed atrium and has a large, stunning sitting room with a fireplace housing a log burner and a door opening on to the private walled cottage garden. The ground floor also benefits from a large kitchen and dining room. Situated on the first floor is a double bedroom and shower room. The cottage works perfectly as guest accommodation or may have the ability to provide a good rental income (subject to planning).

Gardens and grounds

Welcombe Bank Farm is approached via a long driveway flanked by fields enclosed by post-and-rail fencing. The driveway leads to a gravelled area that provides parking for several cars and access to the three garages, all of which are of good size.

The grounds are truly delightful. The rear garden, in particular, has a range of mature trees and shrub borders, well stocked with beautiful planters, providing a variety of colours that enhance the stunning setting. The garden is mainly laid to lawn with an outside dining area, and special mention should be made of the enviable views.
