The property

Drakeshill is a detached family home built in 1934 with a prominent, elevated position overlooking open countryside. The current owners have carried out work, including a new kitchen/dining room, replacement double glazing throughout most of the property, and rewiring and re-insulation of the roof. The property sits on approximately 1.2 acres, with gardens wrapping around the property.

The front door opens into an entrance hallway with original parquet flooring, a guest cloakroom and a staircase rising to the first floor.

A small garden room is located off the hallway, and double doors open on to the garden. An open-plan kitchen/dining room has plenty of light and suits modern-day living, with a dual aspect and lovely views across the garden.

The recently updated kitchen features cherrywood units, granite worktops, Turkish marble flooring, a central island and a separate breakfast bar. Integrated appliances include a Neff dishwasher, hob, extractor, two ovens, warming drawer, a Bosch coffee machine, Klarstein wine fridge and Miele fridge/freezer.

There are two sets of large double doors opening on to the garden. From the kitchen is a utility room, rear entrance porch, and a conservatory with a gardener's WC, boiler room, and access to the integral double garage.

The large lounge has windows to two sides, a fireplace and built-in cupboards. A separate study/playroom with a bay window and side aspect is accessed from the hallway.

Upstairs, the large stained glass window on the landing is a beautiful property feature. The principal bedroom is generous in size, with built-in wardrobes and a bay window. A further large bedroom with a dual aspect and stunning view could also be used as the principal suite. There are three more double bedrooms, two with built-in wardrobes, a family bathroom, a separate WC, and a shower room.
