THE PROPERTY

Arden House is a beautifully presented property in the Warwickshire village of Hockley Heath.

The front door opens to an impressive entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor and original wooden doors providing access to the principal reception rooms; this includes a beautiful, triple-aspect drawing room with an open Baxi fire and double doors opening to the rear gardens, and a charming, dual-aspect sitting room with feature fireplace and delightful bay windows. The entrance hall flows into a well-appointed kitchen and breakfast room, complete with integrated Miele appliances and space for a large fridge/freezer. The ground floor further extends to a large home office with an external door leading to the delightful wooden veranda beyond, utility and cloakroom.

Stairs in the entrance hall rise to a bright and airy first-floor landing, which provides access to an elegant principal bedroom with a modern en suite bathroom and terrace, three further bedrooms, each offering a different aspect of the garden and surrounding countryside, and a family bathroom.

The property benefits from a gated private driveway, set back from the road, providing ample parking for a number of cars, and a double garage complete with a utility room and store rooms that offer development potential to convert to a spacious home office or additional bedroom.

The spacious garden is a particular feature of the property, offering complete privacy and seclusion. It is principally lawned, with a scattering of mature trees, well-stocked herbaceous flower beds and several patio areas, allowing one to follow the sun throughout the day. The garden enjoys delightful open countryside views to the rear and further benefits from a heated swimming pool with a stone-paved patio to the perimeter.
