The property

Bromes Park is a most fantastic family home, situated within this wonderful location surrounded by its own land bordering the National Trust property of Baddesley Clinton. Having been thoughtfully designed in the Queen Anne style and constructed in 1970, this home has an abundance of character and works well for a family.

One enters the property via the reception hall with stairs rising to the first floor and doors radiating to the principal reception rooms. There is a substantial dual aspect drawing room with an open fireplace and a delightful dining room which opens to the kitchen/breakfast room and patio. The kitchen/breakfast room has a range of wall and base units beneath a marble worktop with a central island and integrated appliances including an AGA, a well-placed pantry and a sizeable utility.

The first floor comprises a substantial principal bedroom suite with dressing room and an en suite bathroom. There are four further bedrooms all of which are en suite. The views from the first floor are simply beautiful.

Gardens and grounds

The property is approached via a long-curved tree lined driveway leading to the courtyard providing access to the garaging, stables and parking for plenty of cars. Surrounding the courtyard is a range of buildings including garaging for four cars and three stables as well as the boiler room.

There is an apartment accessed via the courtyard which comprises a sitting room/bedroom with bathroom to the ground floor and two bedrooms, a kitchen, lovely sitting room and shower room to the first floor. This would work well for multi-generation living, guests or staff accommodation.

The formal gardens are stunning, they have been carefully nurtured over the last 27 years and have always been admired by many visitors. The partly walled formal garden has a variety of herbaceous beds and a fine array of mature trees, two green houses will certainly be enough to keep a keen gardener busy with a beautiful rose arbour and pathway leading to the Dutch barn and former grass tennis court. Towards the bottom of the garden is a fish pond with a waterfall with a bridge over and a lovely loggia over looking the pond and the grounds.

Lot 2

Accessed from the garden via a secure gate or alternatively from Haywood Lane is further land which is available by separate negotiation. The further land available totals 25.5 acres and includes woodland, a large pond and grazing land. Please note that there is a footpath over Lot 2.
