Eastacott Barton

Eastacott Barton has fantastic views over the surrounding countryside. In the 16th century it was a farmhouse on the Clinton Estate belonging to the Fane-Trefusis family, the largest private landowners in Devon, before being substantially enlarged into a Victorian manor house in the 19th century when two impressive barns were also added. Both the house and barns are filled with character and period features yet have the benefit of not being listed.

The house faces south and is partly built of attractive local stone and partly of cob, all under a slate roof. It has generously sized rooms with good ceiling height with views across the garden towards one of the property's three lakes and a partly wooded valley. Internally the house is beautifully presented, combining wonderful period features with modern living. The house has been upgraded by the current owners and also benefits from superfast broadband and a strong mobile reception. The ground floor has three reception rooms and a large garden room, with both the sitting room, and the garden room looking south over the patio and garden.

The kitchen/breakfast room also faces south and is a lovely light and airy room with views across the valley. The kitchen was recently fully refitted with shaker cabinets, guartz worktops, induction hob, double electric oven/integral microwave/ steamer, dishwasher, walk-in pantry and an instant boiling water tap. At its centre is an impressive island and a two oven oil-fired AGA. The kitchen leads into a newly fitted utility room with ample storage, a downstairs cloakroom and then onto a boot room/boiler room and further utility area and laundry room.

Upstairs off the galleried landing are three large double bedrooms. The principal bedroom has a walk-through dressing room and an impressive, newly fitted en suite bath and shower room with a freestanding bath, large shower, double sink vanity unit, and underfloor heating.

The second of the bedrooms has a walkthrough dressing area and triple aspect windows with wonderful views. Both additional bedrooms have en suite bathrooms that have recently been fully refitted with large showers, vanity sink units, and underfloor heating. All the bedrooms are south-facing with beautiful views of the surrounding countryside.

At one end of the house is an annexe on two floors consisting of a ground floor living room plus a double bedroom upstairs with ensuite bath and shower room. The annexe is currently used to accommodate guests and therefore does not have its own kitchen facilities, but this could be easily remedied.

Secondary/Holiday Let Accommodation

Two large, stone-built Victorian barns that have been sympathetically converted to a very high standard and currently provide a substantial income rented either together or separately as 5-star self-catering holiday accommodation (see www.eastacottbarton.co.uk) The current owners also utilise the properties as overflow/entertainment accommodation for the main house. Stable has a large vaulted lounge, comfortably accommodating 12 people, with bi-fold doors opening out onto the swimming/fishing lake with stunning views to the hills

Outbuildings, Garden & Grounds

Eastacott Barton is approached via an impressive sweeping driveway. There is ample parking for numerous cars, a walled vegetable garden with greenhouse, double timber garage and further timber outbuilding currently used as a Games Barn with pool table, darts board, table football, table tennis and air hockey. Next to the Games Barn is a sports pitch, recently re-laid with turf and including a football goal and cricket net. Across the driveway is a field that could be used for grazing/equestrian purposes.

The beautiful garden extends out from the back of the house and comprises a patio overlooking an attractive lily pond, extensive lawns and the main lake, all decorated with borders richly planted with herbaceous perennials and roses. The land drops away down into the valley, past flower meadows towards the private woodland with a further two lakes, and streams running down to the River Taw. The woodland leads into a pine forest, all of which is accessible via private footpaths. There are no public footpaths on any part of the land. In all about 26.58 acres (10.76 hectares).
