Situation

Wydemeet is a particularly special rural property, situated in a magical moorland location within the Dartmoor National Park, offering far-reaching views over the surrounding area. The house is uniquely located, being set in a peaceful and private position, yet having immediate access to fantastic walking and riding opportunities in all directions, directly from the property.

Everyday amenities can be found in nearby Princetown or Widecombe in the Moor, whilst further afield are the characterful market towns of Tavistock and Ashburton. There are many beautiful and historic villages to explore in the surrounding area and a wide variety of country pubs to visit too.

There are a number of state and private schools in the area, including Mount Kelly at Tavistock, Stover School at Newton Abbot, Blundell's at Tiverton and Exeter also has a good selection of private and state day schools.

For walking, fishing, riding and cycling enthusiasts, there are many miles of single track lanes, foot and bridle paths in the area which are within easy reach of the property. Trout and salmon fishing can be found on the nearby rivers Swincombe and Dart and there are also many stocked reservoirs in the area.

Communication links to the area are good, with the A38 at Ashburton providing dual carriageway links to the M5 Motorway at Exeter. There are regular mainline rail services to London Paddington from Totnes and Newton Abbot. Exeter International Airport has regular flights to UK and International destinations on a daily basis.

The property

Wydemeet was originally built in the early 1900s for a wealthy family from Totnes as their private fishing lodge. The property, which is freehold, is set in approximately seven acres of its own grounds, which include gardens and a paddock suitable for horses.

The house, which is not listed, faces almost due south and is constructed of granite sourced from its immediate surroundings and has been beautifully modernised and extended by the present owners as their family home.

More recently, the property has been used to generate an income through B&B accommodation and over the past twelve months Wydemeet has achieved Trip Advisor's Number One Ranking for Best B&B in central Dartmoor. The house has also been successfully let out as a holiday rental, during the peak season.

The accommodation in the main house has been finished to a good standard and includes two reception rooms, a farmhouse kitchen, large sun room and selection of domestic offices associated with a property of its period. There are four double bedrooms at first floor level, three of which have en suite bathrooms. On the second floor there is a fifth bedroom and study area.

In addition to the accommodation in the main house, there is a guest lodge with central heating, which could be converted to provide additional accommodation, subject to the necessary consents, and a barn with stabling and storage areas that has permission to be replaced with an American style barn, with stabling, storage and garaging.
