Situation

Higher Bowden is located close to the popular villages of South Tawton and South Zeal. Okehampton which is nearby has an excellent range of facilities including independent restaurants as well as coffee shops. There is a large Waitrose supermarket at Okehampton and the popular town of Tavistock is about 13 miles away with an excellent selection of local shops. The area offers some exceptional facilities including restaurants at Olga Polizzi's Endsleigh Hotel and Gidleigh Park.

A full range of retail, commercial and leisure amenities can be found in the Cathedral City of Exeter, around 29 miles away. Plymouth is some 27.4 miles away, with a good selection of sporting amenities including yachting marinas.

Dartmoor National Park itself is renowned for the diversity of its countryside as well as the many various sporting and recreational activities such as cycling, riding and walking available within its vicinity. Higher Bowden is particularly well placed for the National park with direct access from its own land.

The property

Higher Bowden is a beautifully presented and well connected home with direct access to Dartmoor and 4.67 acres of land.

The house has excellent reception space and high ceilings throughout. There is a lovely kitchen breakfast room with a superb granite fireplace and Falcon double oven make it ideal for entertaining. There is a separate generous utility room which is perfect for a house on the edge of the Moor catering to the outdoor lifestyle. The drawing room is a wonderful space to unwind in with views over and direct access to the grounds. It also features a beautiful fireplace and woodburner. The large dining room is ideal for large family gatherings and entertaining guests and also features a dual fuel wood burner and feature fireplace surround.

For working from home there is a spacious office with good Wifi as well as a further study on the first floor. The bedroom accommodation is highly versatile with five/six bedrooms in total including a fabulous principal suite.
