The bustling medieval town has an eclectic mix of shops, Norman castle and restaurants together with mainline railway station to London Paddington. There is excellent access to the A38 Devon Expressway which provides superb dual carriageway access to both Plymouth and Exeter together with links to the M5 motorway.

The South Hams is bordered to the north by the beauty of Dartmoor and to the south by the enchanting coastline, little creeks and safe unspoilt sandy beaches. For the sailing enthusiast the excellent facilities of both Dartmouth and Salcombe are nearby.

There is an active sailing club at Dittisham which has a great fleet of dinghies. There is also excellent cycling on Dartmoor and surfing at Bantham and Mothecombe which are easily accessible. The house also offers some fantastic wild swimming spots along the banks of the River Avon as well as fishing rights in a truly spectacular location.

The area has a wide choice of schools from both the state and independent sectors, including a popular, well-regarded primary school in Diptford village.

THE PROPERTY

Once a 19th century mill, Manor House is set within a beautiful, wooded valley carrying the idyllic River Avon. It is positioned so that the house looks down the river as it flows past, with its south facing front capturing both the view and wonderful sunlight throughout the day.

It is built of granite with partial rendering under a slate roof and has three storeys of generously sized rooms with tall ceilings and wide, tall windows. It is unlisted and has two original fireplaces still in place. It has also been refurbished sympathetically to a very high standard high standard and is very well presented.

On the ground floor are two principal reception rooms, one either side of the reception hall plus a very large, combined kitchen and breakfast room which is ideal for entertaining. Spanning the front of the house are a paved terrace and sun room connecting with the drawing room. At garden level there are two further reception rooms plus plenty of storage.

Upstairs are five double bedrooms. The principal and guest bedrooms have their own en suite bathrooms and dressing rooms, with the remaining bedrooms sharing the family bath and shower room.

OUTSIDE

The setting for Manor House is outstanding. There is a lovely garden which is laid to lawn and takes in the tranquility of the river and woodland. Beyond this is a superb riverside walk which leads through the valley past many enchanting pools which are ideal for wild swimming and frequently home to rare wildlife including Kingfishers. Overall this outstanding environment leads to a feeling of peace and serenity which leads to a wonderful sense of well being at Manor House.

Lot 2 is 18.59 acres of Arable Farmland.

For equestrian use there is a separate paddock which is over the lane and also flanks the River.
