GROUND FLOOR

ENTRANCE HALL

Beautiful, arched twin doors provide access to the entrance hall. As the photographs and floorplan suggest, this is a large area which perfectly sets the scene in terms of style and space to be found throughout the property. There is a delightful staircase leading to galleried first-floor landing, with large chandelier point above and impressive windows, and the entrance hall features a variety of lighting points, picture light points, period-style central heating radiators, beautiful polished oak boarded floor, a personal door through to the second garage, and a doorway providing access to the downstairs w.c.

DOWNSTAIRS W.C.

The downstairs w.c. features a continuation of the flooring from the entrance hall, a period-style central heating radiator, and an obscure glazed window. There is a two-piece suite comprising a low-level w.c. and wash hand basin.

SITTING ROOM

The sitting room is an impressive space with wonderful views out over the property's very generous rear gardens. There is a beam to the ceiling, windows to three sides, glazed doors out to the stone terrace and gardens beyond, and an impressive fireplace with timber above, stone flagged hearth, antique brick backcloth; all of which is home to a wood-burning stove. The views beyond the gardens are of nearby parkland, which is a fabulous asset to this rural village.

STUDY

Once again, the study offers fabulous views over the gardens and parkland beyond. There is inset spotlighting to the ceiling, decorative coving, and a beam on display.

LOUNGE

The lounge is another lovely room with windows to two sides, enjoying lovely views out over the property's gardens, park and land to the side. There is timber work on display, period-style central heating radiators, and an impressive fireplace home to a wood-burning stove with raised stone flagged hearth and antique brick backcloth.

DINING ROOM

The dining room is superbly presented, with mullioned windows overlooking a vegetable garden to the side of the property and twin glazed doors providing direct access out to the morning terrace/patio. There is coving to the ceiling, a central ceiling light point, period-style central heating radiators, and timber on display.

DINING KITCHEN

This large, impressive room features a bank of windows overlooking the property's side gardens. There is a stable door providing direct access out to the terrace/patio, a continuation of the beautiful oak flooring, and inset spotlighting to the ceiling. The kitchen area features a wealth of units to the high and low levels with work surfaces over, incorporating a Belfast-style sink with granite to either side and stylish chrome mixer taps above. There are two fridges and freezers, an integrated dishwasher, and the focal point of the kitchen is the fabulous, black, four-oven AGA with two chrome-topped hot plates and extractor fan above. The dining kitchen is sure to impress with its size and fittings.

FIRST FLOOR

FIRST FLOOR LANDING

Taking the superb, polished oak staircase with spindle balustrading from the entrance hall, you reach a half landing which then branches off to two sides up to the galleried first-floor landing. There is a chandelier point, impressive windows, and doors providing access to...

EXTERNAL

FRONT GARDEN

Access to Bradbury House is gained via a small lane which serves only two other properties. A wrought iron, electrically operated gate with stone gate posts and stone walling provides access to the property's particularly long private driveway, which is initially cobbled and then becomes pebbled and leads to a semi-circular garden. The garden boasts a beautiful feature pond, a mature tree, and shaped lawn. This impressive driveway is complemented by mature hedging to one side and leads to a triple garage block with workshop space. Two gateways provide access to the side and rear gardens.

INTEGRATED GARAGE

Integrated within the house is garage number 2, which is a double garage with twin, electrically operated, up-and-over doors and a personal door through to the property's accommodation. The garage could provide extra accommodation with relative ease if desired.

DETACHED GARAGE BLOCK

The property boasts a beautiful, detached, triple garage block with three, electrically operated, up-and-over doors and a personal door to one side. Beneath the garage is a fabulous store/workshop with windows overlooking the gardens and broad twin access doors. This space is particularly flexible and could be utilised as a hobby space, home office, or the like. Subject to necessary planning permissions, the detached garage block could be converted into an annex.

REAR GARDEN

The property's rear gardens are exceptionally mature and well presented, while being relatively easy to manage. The gardens comprise of a superb, elevated stone flagged terrace which provides a lovely outlook across the gardens, parkland and fields beyond, mature trees, and a huge amount of lawn, to which there is easy access for a ride-on mower. Bradbury House also features a vegetable garden enclosed by dry stone wall and comprising four principle vegetable beds interspersed with attractive pebbled pathways. There is also a further courtyard area to the rear of the property, as well as external lighting and high-quality fittings throughout which give the gardens a fabulous and well-established feel. The property is built from delightful natural stone and with cast-iron fall pipes to provide a high-quality finish.

Additional Information

The property has gas fired central heating, double-glazing, and a CCTV system. Carpets, curtains and certain other extras may be available via separate negotiation.
