The property

Originally built for the mayor in 1911, Pewley House is a stunning Edwardian home on one of Guildford's premium roads, accommodation extends to approximately 4,000 sq ft and is presented over four floors. The house enjoys a fabulous elevated position with far-reaching views of the cathedral, town and the rolling hills beyond.

The current owner has been in residence for a number of years and has extensively renovated the property. Information relating to the planning permissions granted for the house can be found on the Guildford Planning Portal using Ref: 11/P/O1312.

The elegant front door opens on to the entrance hall which leads to the open plan kitchen/breakfast room which has been designed to the highest specification with an emphasis on light and space providing a contemporary feel ideal for family living. The kitchen has a central island with breakfast bar, range cooker, modern cabinetry and built-in appliances.

Off the kitchen is a well designed pantry and a utility room. A wonderfully light Jeremy Uglow orangery with air conditioning adjoins the kitchen and is set up for dining whilst enjoying garden views and access outside.

Modern glass sliding doors open on to a versatile reception room currently presented as a television room and there is also a generous sized sitting room with high ceilings, beautiful ceiling cornicing, bespoke corner viewing windows, wooden flooring and an open fireplace with a stone surround. A guest cloakroom and study complete the ground floor.

The principal bedroom can be found on the first floor, this room is wonderfully light and has the benefit of a large en suite bathroom with twin sinks, a large bathtub and walk in shower. Two further bedrooms can be found on this floor, both with access to the en suite shower room.

Two additional double bedrooms with air conditioning can be found on the second floor and are serviced by a shower room.

The lower ground floor has impressive leisure facilities including a large indoor heated swimming pool, shower and steam room, and a home gym. There is an additional reception room, a study and the sixth bedroom with en suite shower room. This arrangement lends itself to guests or grown up children.
